PATHWAY PROGRAMS

COACH SELECTION CRITERIA

Introduction

Baseball Queensland (BQ) is the peak body for the administration of the sport of baseball in Queensland. The objective for which the Association is established and maintained are to govern, promote, encourage, support, and improve the sport of baseball in Queensland.

Purpose

The aim of this selection criteria is to ensure a standard of compliance is met when appointing coaches within the BQ Pathway framework.

Structure

Applications are called for State Teams every year following their respective position descriptions. Age groups/ teams within the BQ High Performance Pathway are;

- Youth Women State Program
- U16 State Program
- U18 State Program
- Women State Program

Positions within all State programs include;

- Head Coach
- Assistant Coach
- Pitching Coach
- Executive Officer

Positions within the BQHPP include;

- Assistant Coaches
- Pitching Coaches
- Program Coaches

The BQHPP adopts the following philosophy towards athlete development;

- Athlete – focused: Athletes are the focus of the program. Aim to provide tailored development models, communication, and learning styles to achieve an optimal holistic outcome.
- Coach – led: Providing a structured skill acquisition plan provides stability and continuity whilst creating an optimal learning environment for all athletes and coaches within our Pathway Programs. A big part of this process involves our coaches developing techniques to effectively train and coach our athletes.
- Process – orientated: Understanding of a Long-Term Athlete Development framework forms our foundation so that coaches can begin and/ or continue to explore coaching methodologies that are age and gender appropriate
- Performance – driven: Striving towards athletes reaching their development milestones. Measuring and monitoring athlete progressions along with assessing delivery methods and program planning to achieve optimal holistic outcomes.

Policy

Applicants for a position must meet the Essential Criteria for that position. Desirable Criteria will weigh heavily in favour of applicants who comply. Beneficial Selection Criteria will be considered, when necessary, in making final selection decisions.

BQ will only accept applications from holders of a current, valid Blue Card/Exemption Card at the time of application and have demonstrated the ability to obtain the appropriate Level NCAS Baseball Coach Accreditation.

BASEBALL QUEENSLAND
COACHES / MANAGERS / EXECUTIVE OFFICERS
CODE OF ETHICS

The coach/EO of a team may be the second most influential person in a player's life. Coaches, through their own behaviour (on and off the field) have an enormous impact on the development of young players.

In establishing a solid foundation of character building with players, the key responsibility of any coach is to lead by example. This holds true at all levels of development.

For these reasons and many more, in addition to the Coach/EO Code of Conduct above, the Code of Ethics to encompass all coaches and EOs representing Baseball Queensland in any endorsed and organised tournaments, development programs and special events.

These principles are considered practicable and are within the aims and objectives of the baseball in Queensland.

1. Always provide Supervision of the behaviour of the team
2. Do not criticise players in front of spectators, parents and other teams. Review constructive criticism with a player in private or in the presence of the team.
3. Accept decisions of the umpire as being fair and called to the best of their ability. Do not abuse or ridicule an umpire or allow your team members to do so.
4. Develop team respect for opponents, spectators and officials. Do not criticise other teams, supporters, or officials by words or gestures.
5. Set a good example in personal appearance and behaviour.
6. Encourage sportsmanlike behaviour among players.
7. Whenever possible, ensure all players have equal time on the field.
8. Encourage players to work together as a unified group (team work).
9. Keep yourself informed of sound coaching principles and seek more skilled advice when required.
10. Always encourage your team to hustle on and off the playing field.
11. All press statements and/or interviews must be within the guidelines of Baseball Queensland.
12. Place the welfare and development of the individual above a winning or losing record.
13. Do not embarrass your opponents.
14. Do not use any form of tobacco or alcohol of any description on the field, in the dugouts or bullpens, or whilst in uniform.
15. Abide by the tournament's rules and regulations.
16. Be aware of any player with a medical problem.
17. Strive to develop a positive image and self-sufficient attitude with each player.
18. Enforce the Players Code of Conduct.
19. Present BQ in a positive image in accordance with the BQ Member Protection Policy.
20. Act and present in a manner that reflect BQ core values and refrain from any comments that may damage the reputation of BQ Board and Staff along with any other program staff within the BQHPP

21. While acting in a supervisory/guardianship role while during camps, clinics or tours (including but not limited to national championships and Little League) where the event stipulated an age group of Under 18 or below, no member of the touring party (including managers, coaches, executive officers and scorers) will consume alcohol for the duration of the event, defined as the time that the team member is acquired by, and returned to their legal parent/guardian.
22. While acting in a supervisory/guardianship role while during camps, clinics or tours (including but not limited to national championships and Little League) where the event stipulated an age group of Under 18 or below, no member of the touring party (including managers, coaches, executive officers and scorers) will partake in any form of gambling, wagering, betting for the duration of the event, defined as the time that the team member is acquired by, and returned to their legal parent/guardian.

Note: In cases where there are breaches of this code of ethics, the breaches can be reported to the HPM or Tournament Management Team. If the breach(s) are found proved, then the matter(s) will be referred to a Judiciary for adjudication of penalty.
