

The Australian Sport Officiating Summit

Sunday - 25 October 2020

ON-LINE PROGRAMME

Dear Colleagues and Collaborators,

Make sure that you have registered to join us for this ‘free’ sport officiating event.

Event Details

Date

Sunday 25 October – Keynote Speakers & Workshops

Location

On-line via Zoom – from QUT Kelvin Grove Campus, Brisbane

Registration

Register your attendance by return email to Dr. Kath O'Brien via katherine.obrien@qut.edu.au. Include your name, sport, & sporting position/role. A webinar meeting code for each session will be sent to registered participants via email shortly before each session starts. Please share this information with others in your sport so that they know to register for this new online ‘free’ event.

Program Details:

Time
Development & Retention
1:00pm	1:30pm	2:00pm

Cheryl Jenkins (Tennis Australia)	Dr. Katherine O'Brien (QUT)	Stirling Sharpe
Managing the Australian Open Tennis event – how to develop your umpiring staff and keep them on task over a high-profile two-week sporting event.	Are we effectively developing our referees/umpires? Evidence-based strategies for developing sport officials and in particular, female sport officials.	The 12-Year-Old Umpire: Earlier Recruitment of Sport Officials. Discussing shifts in the sporting environment and the impact on recruitment and retention.

The Australian Sport Officiating Summit

Sunday - 25 October 2020

Technology & Innovation

3:00pm	3:30pm	4:00pm

Jacqui Jashari (Netball Australia) Working with spectators - how do netball umpires cope with decision-making in televised, high-profile sports?	Aden Kittel Assessing the level of transfer of video modes to in-game decision-making performance in the sport of football.	Joshua Adie Using Virtual Reality to assess performance: LBW Decision-making in cricket.

Decision Making Impact

5:00pm	5:30pm	6:00pm

Dr. Clare MacMahon (La Trobe) Examining decision-making on the part of sport officials. Case studies from research – what are the key areas?	Scotty Russell How interacting constraints shape the emergent decision-making of national-level football referees.	QUT Officiating Research Centre Questions? Follow-Up Webinars? Research Help?