Coach of the Month Nominations

The Baseball Queensland Coach of the Year 2024 Award is designed to recognise and honour outstanding coaches who have made significant contributions to the development and success of baseball in Queensland.

This prestigious award aims to acknowledge coaches who have demonstrated exceptional leadership, sportsmanship, and dedication to their athletes and the sport of baseball.

In our continuous effort to acknowledge and celebrate excellence within the realm of baseball in Queensland, we are accepting nominations for the Monthly BQ Awards. Each monthly award recipient automatically becomes a nominee for the Baseball Queensland Coach of the Year 2024 Award.

Nominations for the Coach of the Month award are open to coaches of all levels within the state, from grassroots to elite, who have achieved remarkable results during the month.

Criteria for Nomination:

1. Coaching Performance and Results: Nominees must have achieved notable success in coaching during the previous month period. This includes accomplishments such as significant improvement in individual athletes' skills, team performance, tournament wins, and league championships.
2. Sportsmanship and Ethical Conduct: Coaches nominated for this award must exemplify the highest standards of sportsmanship, fair play, and ethical conduct both on and off the field. They should serve as positive role models for their athletes and promote a respectful and inclusive sporting environment.
3. Player Development: Nominees should demonstrate a commitment to the holistic development of their players, fostering growth not only in technical skills but also in character, leadership, and personal growth. A successful coach will be dedicated to nurturing the potential of each individual athlete.
4. Leadership and Communication: The nominated coach should exhibit strong leadership qualities, effectively communicating with players, coaching staff, and parents/guardians. They should be able to motivate and inspire their team and create a supportive and cohesive coaching environment.
5. Innovation and Adaptability: Coaches who have shown creativity, innovation, and adaptability in their coaching methods and strategies are encouraged to be nominated. The ability to adjust to different circumstances and challenges is a crucial aspect of effective coaching.
6. Commitment to the Sport: Nominees should demonstrate a long-term commitment to baseball in Queensland. This includes active involvement in promoting and developing the sport at various levels, from grassroots to representative teams.
7. Coaching Accreditation and Education: Coaches who have pursued continuous education and professional development in coaching and related fields should be recognised.

Nominations close 24th October at 5pm.

2. Full name of Coach Nominee *

Bret Buckland

3. Nominee Nickname (s)

4. Basis for your Nomination *

i.e. the nominee's role and contribution to coaching and Baseball in QLD that forms the basis of your nomination

Bret has shown consistent dedication to the junior league of Sunshine Coast Baseball. Bret has been active in the SCBA since its inception. He is currently coaching the junior and T-Ball teams. Bret has achieved so much with the T-Ballers in particular. These kids now have a love and rudimentary understanding of T-Ball and baseball that they didn't previously have. Every session is packed with creative and engaging drills and games. Bret excels at keeping players interested and happy. No mean feat when dealing with our littlest up-and-coming baseballers. Bret is also brilliant at keeping parents engaged, interested and playing with their kids. I believe that this is vital to our sport, and our club. Further, it helps to build strong family relationships, which is such a great outcome of well-managed community sport at all levels. To see those kids and their parents having fun together and learning new baseball skills us an absolute joy each week. All of these elements, along with his commitment to the sport of baseball in Queensland, and developing its younger players, make Bret an ideal candidate for coach of the month.
