Scorer of the Month Nominations

The Baseball Queensland Scorer of the Year 2024 Award aims to recognise and honour the invaluable contributions made by scorers to the sport of baseball in Queensland.

This prestigious award seeks to acknowledge individuals who have demonstrated exceptional skills, accuracy, and dedication in recording and maintaining accurate scorekeeping records during baseball games.

In our continuous effort to acknowledge and celebrate excellence within the realm of baseball in Queensland, we are accepting nominations for the Monthly BQ Awards. Each monthly award recipient automatically becomes a nominee for the Baseball Queensland Scorer of the Year 2024 Award.

Nominations for the Scorer of the Month award are open to scorers at all levels of involvement, including local club scorers and those involved in regional and state-level competitions.

Criteria for Nomination:

1. Scorekeeping Proficiency: Nominees should possess a high level of scorekeeping proficiency, accurately recording game statistics, plays, and other essential details during baseball games.
2. Attention to Detail: The nominated scorer should exhibit excellent attention to detail, ensuring accuracy in all recorded information related to the game.
3. Knowledge of Scorekeeping Rules: Scorers nominated for this award must demonstrate a comprehensive understanding of baseball scorekeeping rules and guidelines.
4. Consistency and Reliability: Nominees should have a history of consistent and reliable scorekeeping performance throughout the season or relevant period of involvement.
5. Adaptability: The nominated scorer should showcase the ability to adapt to various game situations, keeping accurate records even during fast-paced or high-pressure games.
6. Support for Umpires and Officials: Scorers who actively collaborate with umpires and officials, assisting them with scorekeeping-related matters, should be recognized for their valuable contributions.
7. Contribution to the Baseball Community: Nominees should have contributed significantly to the baseball community through their scorekeeping efforts, positively impacting the overall game experience for players, coaches, and spectators.
8. Leadership and Mentoring: Scorers who have taken the initiative to mentor and support other aspiring scorers, contributing to the development and growth of scorekeeping within the baseball community, should be considered for nomination.
9. Testimonials and Recommendations: Nominations should be supported by testimonials and recommendations from players, coaches, officials, and fellow scorers, highlighting the nominee's exceptional scorekeeping skills and contributions.

Nominations close 24th October at 5pm.
