Volunteer of the Month Nominations

The Baseball Queensland Volunteer of the Year 2024 Award aims to recognise and celebrate the outstanding contributions made by volunteers to the sport of baseball in Queensland.

This prestigious award seeks to acknowledge individuals who have selflessly dedicated their time, skills, and efforts to support and promote baseball within the community.

In our continuous effort to acknowledge and celebrate excellence within the realm of baseball in Queensland, we are accepting nominations for the Monthly BQ Awards. Each monthly award recipient automatically becomes a nominee for the Baseball Queensland Volunteer of the Year 2024 Award.

Nominations for the Volunteer of the Month award are open to volunteers at all levels of involvement, including club volunteers, event volunteers, and those contributing at the state level.

Criteria for Nomination:

1. Length of Service and Dedication: Nominees should have a significant history of volunteer service in the baseball community in Queensland. Their commitment and dedication to the sport over time will be considered in the evaluation process.
2. Impact and Contribution: The nominated volunteer must have made a tangible and positive impact on the baseball community. This includes contributions to the development of players, coaches, teams, events, and the overall growth of baseball in the community.
3. Leadership and Initiative: Volunteers who have demonstrated leadership qualities and taken the initiative to implement programs, projects, or events that have benefited the baseball community should be recognised.
4. Sportsmanship and Integrity: Nominees should embody the values of sportsmanship, fairness, and integrity, serving as positive role models for players, coaches, and fellow volunteers.
5. Inclusivity and Support: Volunteers who actively promote inclusivity and support within the baseball community, creating a welcoming and nurturing environment for all participants, are eligible for nomination.
6. Collaboration and Teamwork: The nominated volunteer should have a record of collaborating effectively with other volunteers, club members, coaches, and officials to achieve common goals and enhance the baseball experience.
7. Innovation and Creativity: Volunteers who have demonstrated innovative and creative approaches to solving problems, improving processes, or enhancing the overall baseball experience should be recognised.
8. Positive Attitude and Enthusiasm: Nominees should exhibit a positive attitude and enthusiasm that motivates and inspires others within the baseball community.
9. Testimonials and Recommendations: Nominations should be supported by testimonials and recommendations from stakeholders within the baseball community, highlighting the positive impact of the volunteer's efforts.

Nominations close 24th October at 5pm.

2. Full name of Volunteer Nominee *

Aaron Fyfe

3. Nominee Nickname (s)

4. Basis for your Nomination *

i.e. the nominee's role and contribution to volunteering and volunteer culture, and Baseball in QLD that forms the basis of your nomination

Aaron's primary role of umpire coordinator is the largest umpire coordinator role in the country, looking the most games of any club in Queensland across multiple concurrently playing fields.

The role is a stressful one that requires a lot of last minute communication and can take upwards of ten hours a week in coordinating alone. This a role Aaron has undertaken the past two seasons.

5. In 150 words or less, please summarise why you believe the nominee is a worthy candidate for Baseball QLD Volunteer of the Month. *

Not only does Aaron co-ordinate umpires for games at Redcliffe three days a week, he umpires himself, plays seniors, helps coach teams and assisted QBUA in the delivery of a Community umpire course at Redcliffe.

On top of coordinating who will umpire each game, Aaron also finds himself down at the ground guiding his umpiring volunteers, particularly on a Saturday.

6. Nominator (your Name) *

Tom West

7. Relationship to the Nominee *

QBUA & Redcliffe Member

8. To give your nomination the best chance of success, please ensure you have detailed the nominees accomplishments and data above and will email any supporting documentation to: admin@baseballqld.asn.au *
